The H.C. Andersen Museum
Visit the museum in the old city precinct and learn all about the fantastic life of the writer. The exhibitions give an indepth impression of Hans Christian Andersen as a person as well as the world he lived in from 1805 to 1875.

H.C. Andersen’s Childhood Home
The little house where H.C. Andersen lived with his parents from the age of 2 to 14 was opened as a museum in 1930. The house contains the very humble rooms which comprised the home of the great fairy-tale writer, and to which his dearest memories of childhood are attached.

Odense Cathedral
The Cathedral, St. Knuds, was built in the 1300s. It is a Gothic cathedral with a bright, high nave. Many consider this to be the finest Gothic building in Denmark.

The Funen Village
In the Funen open-air museum - with rural structures from the 18th and 19th century - a complete village environment has been recreated, with half-timbered buildings, fences and farm animals, village pond and village street.

The Danish Railway Museum
Here you can lose yourself in 10,000 m2 of rail technology, experiences, discoveries, games and nostalgia. The museum exhibits 150 years of trains and ferries.

Odense City Museum
On 16 June 2006, a new archaeological exhibition opened at the museum of urban history Bymuseet Møntergården. It is an informative archaeological exhibition on prehistory and early history on Funen on two floors of the Nyborgladen building, with 'Creative Man' on the ground floor, and on the first floor 'Fine Funen Finds', which is a more artefact-oriented presentation of the period from the earliest Palaeolithic Age up to and including the Viking Age.

Odense Zoo
At Odense Zoo you can travel over several continents in one day. Discover a tropical rain forest, meet the penguins from Antarctic or go to Africa to see lions. It is all there!

Carl Nielsen Museum
The museum gives a detailed, chronologically constructed picture of the life and work of the composer Carl Nielsen, and of his wife, the sculptress Anne Marie Carl-Nielsen.

Brandts
Brandts is made up of Art Gallery Brandts, Museum of Photographic Art and Danish Media Museum. You will also find the only art bookshop on Fyn. Brandts has Denmark’s largest selection of exhibitions under one roof.

The Iron Age Village
The Iron Age Village is an ancient environment consisting of houses reconstructed according to findings from archaeological excavations at Jutland and on Funen from year 0 to AD 400. The village is a Historical Workshop, where you, through theory and practice, obtain/achieve insight into the living conditions of the inhabitants of the area, our ancestors, app. 2000 years ago.

River Cruise
A beautiful river cruise in the heart of Odense - a great way to experience some of the green areas in Odense city.

Fiord Cruise
From Boels Bro out towards Odense Fjord the fjord boat "Svanen" sails. This is an opportunity to experience a very special trip.
Outside Odense

Egeskov castle
For more than 450 years, Egeskov has stood in its beautiful location in the landscape of Southern Funen. Egeskov is famous for being the best preserved moat castle in Europe.

Valdemars Castle
Castle and Manor Museum - a 4-star attraction with top class aesthetical delights. The castle is owned today by Caroline Fleming, who has opened the doors to her private home to share the history that the castle lounges, rooms and chambers have to tell about the family of which she represents the eleventh generation.

Naturama
Naturama presents natural history in a refreshingly new way. Experience the animals at first hand while the ambience in the room is altered through changes in the lighting as well as audio and video effects. Weekend and holiday activities for children and adults.

South Fyn Archipelago
A life on the ocean wave ... The South Fyn Archipelago is seafaring heaven, however old you are.
